ISIVCF YOUTH RETREAT | CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Identification: Wristbands are required to be worn at all times to verify that you are authorized to be on the campus. One wristband will be received at check-in.
2. Leaving Campus: No one is to leave the campus without specific prior permission from both your Parent and Retreat Coordinator.
3. Visitors: The retreat is only opened to registered students and retreat staff. Parents/guardians may be permitted for the Friday evening welcome and dinner and for the Sunday morning service and lunch.
4. Possession of alcoholic beverages, fireworks, inappropriate materials or media, or weapons, tobacco products/illegal drugs, vaping or like and associated acts, will result in immediate dismissal. See the Things NOT to Bring on the Packing List.
5. Smartphones: We will allow phones to be brought to retreat. They are only to be used in the dorm rooms and during free/meal times and after curfew. They will be secured by the Retreat Coordinator. ISIVCF is not responsible for lost, stolen, or broken phones. We strongly discourage bringing smartphones and tech to the retreat.
6. All medications must be in their original prescription bottle in the student's name and turned in at check-in along with the parent's health statement. Unmarked medication will be confiscated. Retreat staff will NOT dispense any over-the-counter medications unless permission has been given on the medical form. Students should bring all medication or personal items they will need.
7. For the safety of all students and retreat staff, we reserve the right to inspect the contents of all rooms, and personal belongings, if necessary. The staff reserves the right to hold/or dispose of improper items.
8. All attendees are required to observe Christian conduct, personal cleanliness, and respect for authority, fellow students and their personal property. Lack of cooperation, unnecessary roughness, unwholesome attitudes, profanity, bullying, shaming, and violations of conduct code will result in expulsion from youth retreat. No refunds will be given.
9. Members of the opposite sex are not allowed under any circumstance to enter, visit, or loiter near each other's rooms (including relatives).
10. No one is allowed in off-limit areas or outside of dorm rooms after curfew.
11. The entire retreat schedule must be observed by everyone including staff and attendees. Each student will share in duties as part of the privilege of being at retreat. The conference room, dorm rooms, patio, bathrooms and adjacent areas must be kept clean!
12. The dress code will be enforced at all times. See Dress Code section included in the Packing List.

ISIVCF DATA PROTECTION ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As part of our commitment to processing personal data fairly and transparently and in compliance with the Data Protection Law, we would like to seek your consent for each of the ways in which we'd like to use your child's personal data. We would appreciate you taking the time to give consent, as we value being able to use the information in the ways listed below. At any time, you can object to our use of this data or withdraw your consent, and we will stop using your child's photo in the ways described below. You can notify us by emailing isivcfky@gmail.com or calling 929-5111.

Photos and Videos Usage

Due to the nature of our organization, we often take videos and photographs of students at events and activities. We use these videos and photos to help us to give people an idea of what our organization is like, for example in our newsletter and marketing for next year's retreat.

Please tick the relevant box(es) below, sign and return this form to us with your registration form.

PACKING LIST

Students should bring a range of clothes for hot days and cool nights. All belongings (bags, towels, and all personal items) should be marked with your child's name. For younger students, you may want to include a checklist of your child's belongings to help them collect all belongings at the end of the retreat.

Please do not pack electronic devices, jewelry, mirrors, cosmetics, or other reading material. Cell phones, money, and the above items will be checked safe the first night and returned at specified times until the end of the retreat. We strongly discourage bringing smartphones and tech to the retreat.

Recommended Packing List

- Bible, pen, and journal/notebook
- Pillow and bedding (either a sleeping bag OR a twin-sized sheet set)
